Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

Welcome back to the DELO EHF Champions League 2020/21 season as the group phase enters its second half.

One of the encouraging aspects of the season so far has been the professional and sensible way the handball community have dealt amid the challenging circumstances of current pandemic.

From the European Handball Federation's perspective, clubs, players and staff, and federations deserve huge amounts of credit for the ways in which they have conducted themselves; placing measures and following instructions to ensure matches at the highest level of handball going ahead.

As a result, the fans – the heartbeat of our game – are still able to follow their favourite teams, even if it is sadly not inside the arenas. Despite the lack of crowds, the level and entertainment value has remained at the kind of standard that we have grown accustomed to in the DELO EHF Champions League.

The fact that so few matches have been postponed is testament to the hard work carried out especially by clubs, and on behalf of everyone at the EHF, we sincerely thank you.

Already the first six rounds in this season serve as proof that no favourites can take any point for granted and that any underdogs can punch above their weight. This has resulted in an unpredictable and exciting start to the competition, meaning the race to reach the next stages remain wide open.

Even in this difficult time with necessary restrictions on the events, we, together with clubs and our partners, will make sure that the DELO EHF Champions League continues to be seen, followed, heard and talked about as much as in the past years – if not even more.

On behalf of the EHF and EHF Marketing I wish you many unforgettable and thrilling moments.

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
